32	Have always wanted to purchase the Bingo Hall which was once the Ford Auditorium. There is room to create-have a theatre or dinner theatre, meeting rooms and is totally wheel chair accessible and can be used for so many activities (once out of COVID) I run a group for Special Needs in the community.	1/7/2021 8:57 AM
33	Would love to participate, but can't afford your prices. Never been in a club that charged so...much! Deep River charges 1/2 the fees and includes bulk materials. Or if you want special you pay. So no comparison. I planned on joining till I saw it was "through the roof". I know others too in same position. Only the "better of" can afford to join!	1/6/2021 4:58 PM
34	Just moved to city and have not got to experience much of the arts and culture scene yet but hopeful to participate soon.	1/6/2021 1:56 PM
35	We are only 2.5 months in Elliot Lake so our knowledge is limited. The Hiking Club is excellent and very well organized and run. We have hiked 300 km. Not really arts and culture - sorry.	1/6/2021 1:35 PM
36	French culture forgotten! Youth forgotten.	1/6/2021 12:17 PM
37	Learning in retirement was excellent.	1/6/2021 10:59 AM
38	Provide more detail to newcomers	1/6/2021 10:52 AM
39	#3 - I did when I could but the pandemic made this impossible.	1/6/2021 9:53 AM
40	I have recently moved to Elliot Lake so can not answer questions above as of yet.	1/6/2021 9:20 AM
41	Only answered neutral because I don't actually participate in art program. No knowledge of the ins and outs.	1/6/2021 9:15 AM
42	Very poor after the destruction of the civic center	12/18/2020 12:44 PM
43	Can't answer much of this as I have only experienced a small part of this world	12/14/2020 1:10 PM
44	better communication and knowing what people are involved in Like music cafe	12/13/2020 7:17 PM
45	Prior to the Civic Centre roof collapse all of the above existed and was growing in stronger interest	12/11/2020 2:08 PM
46	Very little available for band or classical musicians, don't like 2 arts shows at the same time in the fall. Needs better co-operation	12/11/2020 12:32 PM
47	As a new resident who came from a heavily supportive arts & culture community. There is a severe lack in neutral (faith based) venues that can accommodate large groups for weekly in person classes or spaces for artists of multiple talents to produce and sell their work. If there is such a place then it is not at all advertised. I personally have been trying to find a location in town to host classes and possibly events with the proper regulations in place and nothing is available and now more than ever is a time for anyone struggling through the pandemic regulations to embrace the arts and culture of the community.	12/11/2020 12:00 PM
48	Right now the arts community is stagnating without studio space, shows and gallery.	12/10/2020 9:35 AM
49	I feel like if you aren't on Facebook or read the paper you have no idea what's going on around here.	12/9/2020 1:28 PM
50	We need more support for the arts	12/8/2020 12:08 AM
51	Has not worked with French community in the past at all	12/7/2020 2:00 PM
52	Need to have more handicapp facilities for disabled and more advertising of events before event.	12/7/2020 10:07 AM
53	The Pearson Centre was up only for a short time after I moved to Elliot Lake and I didn't have the chance to actually participate in any of the activities. I was looking forward to participating in some activities and was very sorry when the Centre was torn down.	12/5/2020 10:28 AM
54	I think that promoting the arts and cultural side of Elliot Lake would be a boon to tourism in the area.	12/4/2020 10:31 AM

56	My agreement is what used to be before the loss of the Civic Centre. I want it to be all the things I have agreed with above. Currently I feel nothing is available.	12/3/2020 3:30 PM
57	Definitely non inclusive. Gives impression of a little clique. Beautiful art though.	12/3/2020 1:32 PM
58	It's terrible and trying to figure out why I moved here 2 years ago. Oh right, ELRL lied to us.	12/3/2020 11:54 AM
59	Waste of Tax dollars.	12/3/2020 11:32 AM
60	The loss of the Pearson Centre has been drastic for many forms of Art and Culture that interest me and my family. My answers reflect a pre-Covid 19 state and for the most part a time prior to the loss of the Pearson Centre	12/3/2020 11:26 AM
61	I recently moved here and not aware yet of Arts and Culture in Elliot Lake.	12/1/2020 8:24 AM
62	recently moved here the Covid arrived therefore uninformed therefore checked off neutral	11/28/2020 1:05 PM
63	History, arts and culture of the First Nation people who used the land for hundreds of years previous to the formation of the City needs to be recognized and celebrated in order to bring authenticity to your events and venues.	11/28/2020 3:14 AM
64	right now the arts community of Elliot Lake is bleeding. What with losing the Civic Centre then Covid, we are showing signs of serious disintegration in spite of citizens' hard work. We are spread out across the city in cramped inadequate spaces we know we can't afford for long. This building is EXTREMELY important. I don't know one artist who isn't willing to fund raise to help pay for this building. The Arts community in Elliot Lake, and elsewhere, has always worked hard and dedicatedly to keep their head above water and survive.	11/27/2020 11:28 AM
65	With no arts & culture co-ordinator for the City, arts groups are disconnected and floundering.	11/26/2020 8:21 AM
66	Not at this time. It was growing and becoming more well know. Now we've regressed since the load of the Arts centre.	11/26/2020 12:11 AM
67	Since roof collapse insufficient venues and equipment	11/25/2020 7:44 PM
68	The entire community in need of getting back on its feet.	11/25/2020 6:59 PM
69	It is difficult to rate these questions during a pandemic when everything is closed.	11/25/2020 6:18 PM
70	I would like to involved in an arts & culture group in Elliot Lake but currently COVID-19 has put a lid on it.	11/25/2020 3:08 PM
