

Miners' Memorial Selection Committee

Terms of Reference

Advertising for new inductees to be placed on the Miners' Memorial shall take place every year at the beginning of October and again in early November.

The Committee shall convene in December to review and approve the nominees for induction at the day of mourning ceremony of April 28th in the next calendar year.

Approval of inductees will be completed no later than the end of January of the year for which the names will be enshrined.