Greetings from the Clerks Department!

The function of the Clerks Department is to provide information and service to the public, Council, other municipal departments and other agencies for matters on municipal government. The Clerks Department oversees municipal records, municipal law enforcement services, planning matters, lottery licencing, providing information towards municipal legislation, accessibility for persons with disabilities in accordance with provincial legislation, and the management of Woodlands Cemetery. In addition, the Clerks Department organizes the meetings of Council and its committees to facilitate municipal government decision making.

WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU!!

The Clerks Department is researching on how constituents watch Council and Committee meetings. Please fill in the survey below, or scan the QR code to fill in the survey. Survey closes on October 6, 2023.

How do you watch the City of Elliot Lake Council & Committee Meetings?
